Chapter 1 by Ava

"Shh!" Cath laughed as she pulled me by the arm through the dark empty hallways.

"How can I stay quiet when you're dragging me around school at 12:00 AM" I laughed with her trying not to trip over her or my own feet.

"Well you better or we're going to wake up the whole boys dormitory." She whispered slowing down.

"The boys what!" I half yelled.

"Shut it or we're going to get caught, The boys dormitories have 8 empty rooms."

"But the-"

"I took care of the charms we can now enter the boys dormitories any time we want." She said quietly fishing for something in her pockets. I realized she was wearing jeans and a purple t-shirt that was about five sizes too big. Her hair was up in a messy bun with her bangs held up with a headband. I had the urge to ask if the shirt was Sam's but I decided to refrain from starting another fight.

Chapter 2 by Lex

I simply continued on through the door ahead of her, cautiously taking each step and then waiting for her to follow after me. She kept walking at the same pace through the long hall through the boys dormitory, the sound of my sneakers squeaking on the ground as i tried to keep of with her.

"Where are we going...seriously?" she shushed me and headed towards another door, this time it lead to a room , she wiggled the key in the lock and the lock clicked open. She held the door open again and looked around to be sure we weren't followed

"were here so we can practice something new...on the boys" she giggled to herself, i though messing with the guys wasn't a great idea and I'm sure she could tell by the look on my face.

Chapter 3 by Krittika Mishra

The room was filled with the sound of obnoxious snoring. There were two bunk beds, three of which were occupied. Cath gave me an evil smile and walked up to the beds. I nervously followed, although i was very much convinced that we were going to get in massive trouble for this.

On one of the beds was Alec, easily the biggest guy in the school and easily the biggest bully as well. The bed creaked and groaned under his weight, and he was drooling away on his pillow. On the other bunk bed, a slimy figure who went by the name of Snell was muttering into his blanket and the lower bunk was occupied by a warty-faced boy named Raul was huddled under a dirty sheet.

"Let's face it, these guys aren't exactly the sweetest people on the planet. Actually, you could say they are BEASTS." Cath snickered, and brought out a little pouch, dangling it between her fingers.

My eyes widened in horror. This wasn't good.

Chapter 4 by Eurydome

Cath quickly ushered me to climb into the empty bunk and get ready to recite something for here. "Are you crazy?" I'm not doing this idea as soon as she spoke it. "Comon, I need you to do this." she said. I hesitated. "What part of getting into a bed is includ and pushed me to the ladder. "Fine, fine! Quit pushing me!" I hesitantly climbed up, and upon trying to climb into the bed, felt a large warm lump in the center.

"Wait... Cath... Didn't our teachers tell us we had a new student?" I turned around to face her quickly, a shocked look on her face. Whomever was underneath the blanket sat up, rubbed his eyes, and stared at me. "Wh-what?" He summoned his wand and recited a spell of light. Now there's me, him, and my terrified friend Cath, sitting there in dim light just staring at each other.

"Who-" I cut him off by putting my hand over his mouth. "Shh! Sorry! You have to be quiet!" The words tumbled out of my mouth in a startled tone. His messy brown hair and lavender eyes really caught my attention though.

Cath almost had a panic attack. "Th-The spell, Gen! The pouch! Toss it! We gotta bail!" I quickly tossed the pouch to her, but at the same time, the boy grabbed my wrist and gently move my hand from his face. "Who are you two?" He whispered. "Uhh-- it doesn't matter! W-We're going!" I climbed down the ladder and we booked it out of there, the curious boy following us without our attention.

Chapter 5 by GP

We legged it back down to the girl's dorm, not caring about anyone hearing us. We sat down on Cath's bed and stared at each other. I cast a spell of light and held the wand between us.

"Where - the - hell - did you get that thing?" I growl.

"Oh, around and about," whispered Cath airily.

"Where?"

"Okay, if you must know, I got it from Sam," she muttered. I flinched.

"He sent it to you?"

"Not with his permission per say,"

"You summoned it?" I gape. We weren't meant to learn Summoning till Year 10.

"I found a book in the library, I was just trying it out,"

"Wow. And what was that spell anyway?"

"You'll see," she said. We touched the tip of our wands together and I blow out the light at the top of mine.

"Night!"

"Night!"
